Concerts/Ice Cream Social At Methodist Church

Two of the performers at Akron's Spark in the Park Saturday will also appear Sunday, July 1, at the Kewanna United Methodist Church.

Anadara will appear during the 10:30 a.m. worship service. Her vocals are a balance between heartfelt Christian-listening music and congregational songs. She was the spotlight artist in the March/April issue of "Today's Christian Woman" and recently performed live at the Crystal Cathedral in Garden Grove, California.

Former professional baseball player, Kent Bottenfield, will appear in concert at 6 p.m. Sunday evening. Born in Portland, Oregon, Bottenfield pitched from 1992 to 2001 for the Montreal Expos, Colorado Rockies, San Francisco Giants, Chicago Cubs, St. Louis, Cardinals, Anaheim Angels, Philadelphia Phillies and the Houston Astros. His best season came in 1999 with the Cardinals when he posted an 18-7 win-loss record.

Bottenfield notes "Baseball was my dream. It was something I planned and hoped for from the age of 10. Music has been different. I did not dream of being a recording artist and I never planned on being in the spotlight – singing, speaking and publicly ministering to people. Baseball was my dream. This music ministry is God's plan, specifically designed for me."

Free will offerings will be accepted.

An ice cream social will follow the evening concert. Everyone is welcome to attend both events.

New Driver License Available

The Logansport License Branch has started issuing the new Indiana digital driver license and identification cards recently unveiled by Governor Mitch Daniels. Through innovative technology, the new cards are designed to help battle identity theft and card tampering, and will also help protect against underage drinking and smoking. The new license features a vertical format for those under 21 years of age, with the dates the recipient turns age 18 and 21 highlighted in color.

The new system will produce licenses faster and at less cost than the current cards. Production time is 45 seconds compared to the current production time of three minutes. Each new license will cost 99 cents to produce, down from the current $1.27, resulting in a cost savings of $2.5 million during the six-year contract period.

Digimarc Corp., which has supplied the equipment the BMV uses to produce Hoosier driver licenses since 1982, is the primary vendor. The company employs 60 people in its Fort Wayne operations.

Be a Hero, Give Blood

To some, a hero may be a school teacher who taught them how to read, a stranger who changed their tire in pouring rain or a grandparent who provided their favorite childhood memory. Heroes are heroes for different reasons and come in many forms, but all see a need and act accordingly. The American Red Cross believes it is fortunate to see heroes every day.

A hero is the volunteer who leaves their home in the middle of the night to make sure needs are met when a local family loses their home in a house fire or the person who rolls up their sleeves to help save lives by giving blood. A hero also includes the American Red Cross case worker who works with a military family to get a message overseas.

You can be a hero to a child battling leukemia or to a parent receiving a life-saving surgery by donating blood. Help ensure that blood is available for patients by donating on Tuesday, July 3, at Woodlawn Hospital in Rochester from 10 a.m. to 3 p.m. All presenting donors will receive a t-shirt.

If you are at least 17 years of age, weigh a minimum of 110 pounds and are in good general health, you may be eligible to donate blood. All donors need to present positive identification. For more information or to schedule your blood donation appointment, call 1-800-448-3543.

Reptile Days at State Museum

Fierce, fast, friendly or frightening – our notions about reptiles and the range of our reactions to them are fascinating. "Reptile Days" at the Indiana State Museum in Indianapolis offers opportunities to hear the facts and get up close and personal with these extraordinary creatures. Visitors will learn about snakes, lizards, turtles and even amphibians at this annual event Saturday, July 14, from 11 a.m. to 4 p.m. and Sunday, July 15, from noon to 4 p.m.

Museum presenter "Snakehead Ed" Ferrer, along with the Hoosier Herpetological Society and other reptile specialists, will bring an array of these creatures to the museum to teach visitors why they may or may not be the right pet for their lifestyle. They'll also show how to care for and handle captive breeds. Department of Natural Resources and Indy Parks representatives will explain why reptile species native to Indiana are protected here, and Rupert Boneham will speak about his lifelong love of reptiles and his experiences with them during the Survivor reality TV show. Visitors can enjoy Silly Safari and other performers in the Governor Frank O'Bannon Grand Lobby and, for an additional fee, have a photo taken with your favorite reptile.

"Reptile Days," presented by Zoo Med, is free for members or included with general museum admission: $7 for adults, $6.50 for seniors and $4 for children ages 3-12.
